CURLERS ORGANIZE

In the city hall on Thursday evening, November 6th, the Red Deer carvers met to make arrangements for the coming season. There was a good attendance. President, J. G. Fulton, called the meeting to order, and after a few remarks, said it was necessary to elect a secretary and treasurer for the season. After some discussion, P. B. Kent was duly elected secretary. A long debate followed as to whether or not it was necessary for skating or not. There was a strong feeling in the meeting that the club ought to provide some source of income, and that it was necessary at the same time it did not want to interfere with the newly formed skating club. T. A. Gaetz pointed out that the club could provide some place for the curling club, and that the ice skaters would have a place for skating that would be sheltered from severe weather, and it was finally decided to accept the offer of a place for children up to 14 years of age. This arrangement also met with the approval of the skating club. Messrs. Ross, Taylor and C. H. Malcolm.

It was decided that provision be made to supply the ladies with one pair of skates to be kept by the club, and expressed that the club would supply them all the space they desired.

Then followed the election of skips, and it was decided that the executive should choose the skips, and that the skips elect their own rinks, subject to the approval of the executive. It was anticipated that all the old competitions will be played for this season, and with the strong bunch of new young, enthusiastic curlers who have joined the club, it behooves the older members to look after their laurels.

There is every indication of a strong membership, but the secretary will be pleased to receive the names of anyone wishing to join. There are rocks provided by the club, so come

PARLIAMENT PROROGUED

Ottawa,, November 11.—Parliament prorogued at five o'clock Monday afternoon. The ceremony, which was scheduled to take place at half past four, was delayed half an hour by a last minute amendment to one of the government prohibition bills. Business in the commons was practically concluded at twelve o'clock, and the house suspended until three. On reassembling it was found that the prohibitive bills were not yet through the senate, so a further sus-suspension was declared until four o'clock.

At the morning session, the commons passed the supply bill amounting to sixty-two million dollars, and put through some minor bills. A certain amount of time was devoted to answering minor questions. Mr. F. L. Davis, Neepawa, asked Hon. C. J. Deberry, who was leading the government, if it had been decided when the house would meet again. Mr. Doherty replied that while the date obviously could not be stated now, the house would meet again early in 1920.

Economy of Ford Service

WEAR is unavoidable even in the best car, but certain parts wear out more quickly than others. There is no need of scrapping your car because the piston rings have seen their day, because the platinum points of the vibrators are worn out. Probably the rest of the car is as good as new.

Medical men agree that the human body is renewed, cell by cell, every seven years. You can do the same with your Ford Car and prolong its life at minimum cost by replacing worn parts from time to time.

Ford service has been the means of doubling the lives of hundreds of Ford Cars, and cutting down the cost of motoring. The fact that a Ford Touring Car, which costs $690, f. o. b. Ford, Ont., can be purchased part by part separately for $917 is ample proof of the economy of driving a Ford Car.

It will pay you to have your car overhauled during the winter months. 700 Canadian Dealers and over 2,000 Service Garages supply genuine Ford parts and prompt repair service.

When buying, choose a Ford, and take advantage of the economy of Ford service.

UNABLE TO BELIEVE IN LASTING PEACE

Bethmann-Hollweg Gives Testimony in Question of Responsibility for the War.

Berlin, Nov. 5.—Continuing his evidence before the sub-committee of the assembly investigating the question of the responsibility for the war, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg said: "As regards our strategic demands (regarding Belgium and the eastern frontier) I did not believe that a comparatively long period of peace would be granted us. I am still today unable to believe in a lasting peace, particularly after we have had exhibited to us the state of mind in which the entente has founded what it calls a real peace.

Questions regarding Belgian deportations brought out warm support from Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg for General Von Blasing, the former governor-general, who, he said, had opposed the deportations. The former chancellor said he was not in a position to stop them, although he thought them politically stupid, but the policy had been introduced by the military authorities as an urgent political necessity.

Governor-General Von Blasing, said Bethmann-Hollweg, had taken up the matter personally with Hindenburg, and Ludendorff, and had obtained alleviations in the mode of applying deportation policy, but in general he was unable to force a change in the policy as the military authorities declared that they had need of labor.

Taking up the question of Belgian deportation, he replied affirmatively to a question asking whether they had not died in large numbers from cold and hunger, and whether they had not been used for work for which they were not qualified.

PACKERS, NOT FARMERS, FIX THE PRICE

COMMISSIONER MURDOCK STATES FIRM CONVICTION THAT FARMER ARRANGE LIVE STOCK PRICES.

Ottawa, November 5.—The decision of the board of commerce, as to whether the prices prevailing on March 10 for pork products, will apply at the present time, will be made in writing shortly. After hearing representatives from the packers, who are seeking to have the board reduce the order fixing prices at the March level, Commissioners Robson, O'Connor and Murdock reserved judgment. In the course of the afternoon sitting, the board stated to J. S. McLean, representing the Harris Abattoir company, his firm conviction that the packers and not the farmers, fixed the price of live stock. This contention Mr. McLean disputed.

BRAN AND SHORTS

The afternoon sitting of the board was largely taken up in discussion of a series of questions put by Commissioner O'Connor to S. E. Todd, former secretary of the Canada food board, and now secretary of the Industrial development association of Canadian packers. Mr. O'Connor, assuming that the per capita consumption of bread each year was two hundred and forty one and one half pound loaves, suggested that by adding the small sum of $1.20 per annum to the price paid by Canadian consumer for bread, the cost of bran and shorts might be greatly reduced. He asked Mr. Todd whether such a reduction would be possible, and if so, whether it would result in cheaper meat prices to the Canadian consumer. Mr. Todd asked for time to consider the questions and stated that he would submit his answer in writing.

Mr. O'Connor wished to know whether the high cost of butter and milk was due, as had been contended, to the prevailing price of bran and shorts.

Mr. Todd replied that the contention was correct, insofar as milk was concerned. With regard to butter, its production was not so much affected by the price of mill feeds, because it was made largely in the summer months, when the cows were on pasture.

In summing up for the packers, Mr. McLean contended that the packing business in Canada was operated at a very small profit and expressed the view that it was dangerous to disturb an industry of such importance, which was making a profit of not more than one-half a cent a pound.

The Aftermath of Action

(By Henry Chas. Suter)

HEROES ALL!

They were resting in the dugout, and the conversation turned upon the topic of "aftermath" of action. One who had enlisted among the earliest, and had fought the longest, had some scathing remarks to make about those engaged in war work at home, particularly makers of munitions. He ruminated on, impelled by indignation, while his comrades seemingly succeeded in his observations, if not obsessed with his ideas. For one there as listener, at least, had some things to say to the doctor there, and took the talker to task.

"Say, Bill, you had better shut up about the slacking of munition workers, because I can tell a different tale about them, at least from experience, because I made T.N.T. before I came out here."

All attention was now centred upon the speaker, who promised a new diversion to the conversation, and they bade him hold forth. So he cited them information concerning the manufacture of T.N.T. (trinitrotoluene), the deadly explosive. He had been a chemist in the works, whose duty it was to test the acids by certain temperatures, according to the next procedure of the process. He told them something concerning the deadly fumes that came off from the nitrate time and again, and incidentally referred to the fact that it was essential the temperatures should be closely watched, as they rose, in their stills, because in a moment of carelessness the whole plant might blow up and send them all sky-high. Then, in the handling of the chemicals, one was continually colored with a yellow tinge, until hands, face and hair were dyed; moreover, the deadly poison sometimes got into a cut upon the hands and inflicted a disease like yellow jaundice.

"Why, boys," he cried, "we were fighting there alright; yes, fighting it, but we never had a chance. It seemed, to hit back. You talk about your heroes, but week after week we buried men who died of T.N.T. poisoning, who went without a kick. I remember a fine medical student who became afflicted with T.N.T. poisoning; it started with a yellow rash up the side of his leg; he showed me one day in our boarding establishment in the bath room. He soon went to the hospital, but it was something new to the doctors there, and they were just experimenting with it, and didn't seem to understand that poison much, or at least they hadn't discovered much of a remedy for it; and, well, in short, in a few weeks, that fine fellow was dead, and died fighting, I tell you. Why, every time we changed shift, we were working alternately day and night, we listened to some new danger that had arisen, and at last the place blew up and many with it, leaving a scarred and blackened waste upon the ground today. My shift wasn't on that night, and so I escaped, and that's why I'm here; but I tell you, every one of them were heroes; yes, heroes all; for they lived and died fighting all the time, but with never a chance to hit back."

BOUNDLESS

The wet will not die screams at my window pane.
Oh, dead, that will not die; again I feel,
Through undamped roar and driving hurricane.
The perished touch, the useless wild appeal.
To the cold earth unloved and unforgetting.
Whisper thy grief, wail forth thy desperate plea.
For know, the desert's wastes are not more arid.

In the cold grave, unloved and unforgetting.
Drink to the dregs oblivion's bitter wine.
Wild ocean's weary depths are not more boundless.
Than is the distance betwixt thy soul and mine.

NEWS WEEKLY SERMON

By REV. GEO. D. ARMSTRONG

"I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."—Rom. 12:1.

Our text is taken from a letter by St. Paul which shows very clearly the relationship of high ideals to lowly tasks, the worship of God to the practical duties of man.

I do not know that there is any subject of greater importance in our present day thinking than that of Christian stewardship, and I am convinced that when we take a more reasonable view of what it involves, very many of the problems which baffle us will find an easy solution.

For what I shall say in this article, I am largely indebted to a little pamphlet on this subject written by Harris Franklin Hall, and published by the executive committee of the national campaign. (If any one desires a copy of this pamphlet, I shall be glad to furnish him with it.)

"The church has come back at last to the emphasis of Jesus—the Kingdom of God. Christianity does not mean 'saving' a few folk for another world, or gathering a few people for fellowship and worship, or 'keeping up the church'; it means a new world here and now where the will of God shall be done for the good of men in home and business and state, and among the nations which stirring industry, paganism in politics, the paganism of militarism and oppression among the nations, must be all done away. Men are to see Jesus Christ not simply the savior from sin, but the Lord, whose spirit must rule all life. That was the goal of Jesus. That is the vision which is stirring men's hearts. It lies back of missions and social service. It has made men think that poverty could be banished, that justice could be established in industry. In the midst of history's most terrible war, it has fired men's hearts with the conviction that they were fighting not for wealth or territory, but for a new world order of righteousness and peace. 'The Kingdom of God, that is the end of the church, that is the meaning of Christ's coming, that is the goal of the ages, and to that end every Christian, as Christian, is assigned with a life of substance.' Personality, powers and possessions are to be devoted to this great purpose, and we are to be used continually, not one day in a hundred, but our time belongs to God. Remember the seven days to keep them holy."

"A new day of unmeasured opportunity is dawning upon the church. It cannot meet it unless she can command the time and the thought of the strongest men in her ranks, just as the State commands the leaders of science and business for war."

A ringing challenge is being sounded to the men and women of this district to mobilize their energies and resources for the common good of this community. Shall we respond to the call? Very recently a very representative gathering was held in this city to honor a party citizen. Can we not get together again for more aggressive effort in the interest of the city and district? We need to unify our thinking, we are to be victorious, or successfully, and we need to re-adjust our social and religious machinery if we are to have a real forward movement.

Shall we present our personalities and powers in the spirit of service and sacrifice for a common cause? Then how about our possessions? Have we realized that the wealth of the community belongs to God, and one of the great responsibilities resting upon us is to justify what we have and to use all we have in the interest of all?

Financially, our district was probably never in a better basis than it is today. We may not be handling as much of other people's money as we did in boom times, but what we have is more honestly ours. There is more of real wealth in the country than ever before. Has our giving to the church kept pace with our prosperity? Have we measured up to our responsibilities in this regard? We have learned more about systematic giving in the last few years than we have in any other period of our history. Our suffering and of need. Shall we likewise respond to the vision of opportunity which is coming to us in these consecutive days?

Money is stored up power—it is so much of colored manhood. It may spell opportunity—it does spell obligation—it may mean danger. "All power is danger, except we link it to some high goal." Recall the warning teaching of Jesus. "Three rich men stand forth in special prominence in the gospel pages. One was a fool, who bartered his soul for barns and acres. One was hard of heart and selfish. One was a miser."

many a girl's complexion will be found to disappear if Zam-Buk is applied with regularity. Zam-Buk and blind, and saw neither God nor his beggar brother at the door. The third was a coward, who lacked the courage to leave his wealth and choose the higher good. There is only one way to escape the peril of wealth—not by renouncing it, but by making it serve a worthy purpose—an interest larger than our personal need.

Our personal and family needs vary so much, and the distribution of wealth is so irregular, that it is impossible to lay down a hard and fast rule for our giving. From every one according to his ability, to every one according to his needs is a general principle which may reasonably be applied. Our giving to the church has been utterly inadequate and too often the church has played a pauper's role, asking for charity rather than justice. Few have lived up to the Old Testament standard of giving and the New Testament standards are rarely acted upon. How many give the widow's mite, or their penny, casting it in their alms.

If it is to have a real meaning for us we must respond to the challenge of New Testament standards and test the principle of giving with real sacrifice. Dare we believe that giving at least one-tenth of our income is within the possibility of all and far behind the reasonable service of many.

"New occasions teach new duties"; "The Church of God of the new day must think and give in terms that it has never used before—but a special 'drive' or campaign is not sufficient." We must realize a separation of men and women who will be real stewards of the resources of life. By systematic, business-like, large-hearted giving we shall prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Such giving will mean moral victory for the selfish—real joy for the giver and a richer spirituality for the church. Those who have acted upon this principle have not impoverished their lives by so doing—and many testify to increased material resources and enriched spiritual life, resulting from this definite consecration of money to the purpose of God.

We are not in this laying down a principle which applies to the few who are rich—for few will claim to belong to that select group. "The test of our Christian life is not what we should do with our neighbor's wealth, but what we consider as stewards we are in the little or much that we ourselves possess."

Are we walking in the footprints of our Lord?

AGRICULTURAL LEADERS WILL STUMP WEST

Winnipeg, Nov. 6.—Following the meeting of the Canadian Council of Agriculture next week, in Winnipeg, when it is foreseen that a new name may be selected for the farmers' national party, T. A. Cramer, H. W. Wood, president of the U.P.A., and other leaders in the agricultural movement, will begin a tour of the entire west, speaking on the farmers' policy and arousing interest to solidify the farmers in national as well as provincial politics.

The tour starts at Brandon, November 18, then Regina, Saskatoon, Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton, Lethbridge, Nelson, and other points in British Columbia. These meetings are considered significant in view of the approaching sessions of the western legislatures, in which the grain growers have large representation, and the Manitoba election, which comes this winter or early in the spring.

ALBERTA PROVINCIAL W.C.T.U.

1. Since one of the greatest essentials of national well-being is the moral and spiritual thought of the people, it is recommended that special prayer meetings for temperance work be held. That W.C.T.U. women hold mid-week union prayer meetings if possible, say, once a month; also that the W.C.T.U. chapters be urged to have Bible study and prayer with their children each day.

2. Realizing, as we always have, the importance of educating the children, as well as the necessity of training recruits, we urge:

(a) That in every locality where there are children of T. T. L. age and young people of "Y" age, that the local unions organize these branches and if unable to do so, that the District organizer be asked to help in doing so.

(b) That we carry out a program of child welfare work either individually or in co-operation with other societies.

(c) That each union organize a department of Little White Ribboners, and try to get every baby in the district enrolled, according to regulations.

3. That the department of work among foreigners be continued, and that all unions who are in touch with any foreign settlement be urged to try to interest them in our work, with a view to organizing them into a union when things practical.

4. That our unions are urged to make greater use of our literature, and to conduct a special educational campaign regarding the nature and harmfulness of liquor and narcotics.

5. That each union hold at least one moral contest during the year, and that each District hold a contest during their convention.

6. That one or more mothers' meetings be included in the annual program.

7. That we urge upon all women the importance of attending all municipal School Board and Hospital Board meetings, and that each union appoint delegates to attend each meeting.

8. We recommend that the members of the W.C.T.U. advocate the use of Canadian literature, both in the home and Sunday Schools wherever possible.

9. That each union will urge upon its members, the necessity of continual prayer for the missionaries and workers in the Indian schools and also to try and send at least a small donation to the treasurer during the year for the purpose of distributing temperance literature.

10. That each local union make a study of the annual report to different departments and make a special study of the resolutions and plan of work.

11. That we be especially alert to assist in every possible way the enforcement of the Liquor Act.

12. That each union provide the "Little White Ribbon Bulletin" to its members.

13. Recommended: That in our reconstruction work we direct our activities through the channels of our own organization when possible.

(a) That we urge our unions to make special efforts to enlist sympathy of women coming to us from overseas, whether as teachers or war brides, or in any other capacity, to the end that they are made to feel at home in Canada.

(b) That women take their rightful place in every public capacity side by side with men.

That we do not discontinue our patriotic efforts, but continue actively in our own lines of work.

A NEW USE FOR THE AEROPANE

The Department of Agriculture at Ottawa has discovered a new use for the aeroplane. The Entomological Branch is investigating the mosquito in the Lower Fraser Valley in British Columbia. By using the aeroplane, the country is traversed in order to map out the swampy areas and other breeding places that are readily located in photographs taken from the air.

The aeroplanes were used in making a comprehensive survey of the complicated water system of the Fraser River and the adjacent bodies of permanent and temporary water. The district of a fight reported by Dr. Hewitt has demonstrated the possibility of using this machine also for making surveys of timber that is being killed or has already been destroyed by various insects. Its use, it is believed, will help very greatly in the entomological work with various insects being carried on by the Federal Department of Agriculture.

SAVED HER LIFE

Mrs. O'Brien Didn't Have a Single Well Day in Five Years—Tanlac Restores Her to Health.

"I actually believe this Tanlac has saved my life," is the remarkable statement of Mrs. Grace O'Brien, who resides at 18 June Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada.

"I hadn't seen a well day in five years until I took Tanlac," she continued. "The agonies I suffered from stomach trouble made me almost wish I was dead many a time. In all those long years of suffering, I have not known what it was to enjoy a meal, and have gone for days at a time without touching real food, because I was afraid of the pain that I knew it would bring me. Even a piece of dry toast would upset me so that I would be in misery for hours, and when I tried liquid food, it would sour in my stomach. My food I would try to eat, my food would feel like a rock in my stomach and would sour and form gas that rose up in my throat and almost cut off my breathing. Pains all through the pit of my stomach sometimes kept me awake at night walking the floor and I finally got to the place where I was so weak and nervous and run down that I couldn't even dress myself. When I would try to dress in the morning, I have fainted away many a time, as I would be so weak that I couldn't stand on my feet. If it hadn't been for my two daughters I don't know what I would have done, as they had to take care of me and the house, too."

"The first bottle of Tanlac didn't seem to make much improvement in my condition, for I had suffered so long that my troubles were hard to reach. I began to feel like eating after the second bottle, and as soon as I could eat and digest my food I felt myself getting stronger. I kept on until I have now taken four bottles and it is remarkable how I have improved. The pains through my stomach have disappeared entirely, and the gas has quit forming. I have a good healthy appetite and can eat meat, onions, in fact, anything I want—and it builds me up and I enjoy every meal. My strength has come back until I can get around and do almost as much housework as my daughters can. I have gained ten pounds and am picking up all the time, and when night comes I sleep without a pain and wake in the morning feeling like a different person. I really believe Tanlac has saved my life, and I am glad to tell everybody about this wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Red Deer by Gaetz-Cornett Drug & Book Co., in Stettler by the Palace Pharmacy, Ltd., in Eekville by Eekville Drug Co., in Veteran by Veteran Drug Store, in Delburne by E. J. Hogge, and in Hespero by Macdonnell Bros.

Make Your Dreams Come True

Fond parents dream of a bright future for their children.

They dream of the literary and musical education they are going to give their daughter, and of the high position she will take in her sphere of womanhood.

They dream of the education they are going to give their son and vision him some day as a clergyman, a famous lawyer, an eminent physician, a prominent financier, or a captain of industry.

But to make these dreams come true —or even partly true—requires foresight, planning and money.

To provide the money what plan so wise as to buy Victory Bonds for each child?

Thousands of parents bought Victory Bonds for their children in 1917 and 1918.

Surely you will be among the thousands of loving parents who will buy Victory Bonds for their children—this year?

Victory Bonds may be bought on instalments at such easy terms that every parent who so wishes may buy.

You'll Have Eggs to Hunt

Winter as well as Summer
If you feed Royal Purple Poultry Specific to your hens, it will cause them to lay eggs at the same time as in the summer. It is a perfect substitute for you to feed your hens to make them produce eggs. Don't experiment—Royal Purple Poultry Specific is guaranteed to produce eggs and does so—less than 1c. per day, per hen, and makes them lay.

Royal Purple Poultry Specific

Is manufactured from roots, herbs, minerals, etc., practically what the food found during the summer months. It is therefore a perfect substitute for you to feed your hens to make them produce eggs. Don't experiment—Royal Purple Poultry Specific is guaranteed to produce eggs and does so—less than 1c. per day, per hen, and makes them lay.

Your money back if it does not produce the eggs, when used according to directions.
Mr. J. Brandon, Agr. Ont., writes as follows:
"Kindly send me one of your booklets. We didn't have an egg all winter until we started using your 'Royal Purple Poultry Specific,' and it's the best thing I have ever used. We are getting eleven to twelve eggs per day now on account of feeding them the right food."

SECRETARIES OF
U.F.A. BACK
WOOD'S SCHEMEPOLITICAL REFORMS
ARE RECOMMENDED

Although one or two speakers opposed the group system of the U.F.A. secretaries' meeting at the G.F.A. Growers' Exchange Wednesday night, the great majority of them were strongly in favor of it. A resolution was passed endorsing H. W. Wood's class group representation plan.

H. A. Malcolm, of Innisfail, in a speech, strongly upholding Mr. Wood's plan, wanted to know what would happen if four or five groups, without a majority in either case, should go into the legislature. If a ministry should be defeated on a vote, what would be their resultant action? Would they resign? He declared that such event would not be possible under the French-American, or even the German system of government. He ventured the suggestion that although no provisions for this contingency were provided under the British constitution, a change might be made to establish a precedent.

TWO CLASSES IN CANADA

John Glanbeck, who followed Mr. Malcolm, stated that there are two classes of society in this country today: Those who produce and those who are able to take from the producer. The big man sets the prices, he averted, and the small business man, such as retailers, have to toe the mark and take the blame. They are in the same boat as the farmers and the laboring men. He qualified that, although these three groups are in the same boat, each group has different questions to settle; therefore, the farmer, laborer, and the small business man must find some common ground on which to work. The closed door is the right policy, he averted, at the coming election. "We can't have one man talking this, and another that. We must agree."

P. BARKER'S VIEWS

P. Barker, vice-president of the U.F.A., declared that some of the officers were not upholding their constitution in both speech and action, which was proving a detriment to their cause. He said that he did not believe that the last word in government had been said. He thought that the wisest men among them should get together and make a study of systems of government, from political, social, ethical, and geographical standpoints, and formulate a plan suitable to Canada's particular conditions in these respects.

AN OPPOSITION'S FUNCTIONS

He said that today that the duty of the opposition was generally accepted to be that of telling the other party off and exposing their weaknesses and baseness. "The day," he said, "has come when we must stop this; it breeds disrespect in boys and girls for their government. A man goes to bed a gentleman and wakes up a scoundrel just because he has been elected to some political office." He thought that Canada should adopt a system of government along the lines of those of the United States or France, in which the cabinets do not go to places whenever the voters should fail to uphold their party. The cabinet of the United States he averted, is not responsible to the voters, but that it draws its support from public opinion and the press. He cited William Jennings Bryan as an example of a cabinet minister who was brought to resign by these two agencies.

He believed that this country should get out of the narrow-minded partisan furrows through which it is travelling. He said President Wilson showed the breadth of men who are doing big things on non-personal and non-political lines, and gave as an instance his congratulatory of a Republican governor on his re-election.

speak, declared that he would have preferred not to say anything, but that since he had been called upon he would simply restate his position.

He said that if he had ever done anything guided by personal feeling or animosity, he did not know it. "In fact," he said, "I have no personal feelings." He said that a good deal was being said about closed doors. "I didn't close any doors. This is an organization of farmers and has never been anything else. Have we ever pretended to be anything but an economic class organization. People seem to hold me up and accuse me of carrying out my own ideas." He said that the political executive had no right to change the constitution of the U.F.A.

49TH BATTALION DANCE

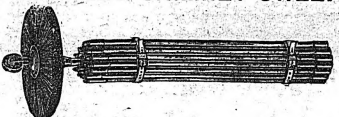

"Not only are present comrades of the G.W.V.A. and former members of the 49th Battalion invited, but an invitation is extended to all their friends to the dance to be held in the Edmonton Armories on the evening of the Armistice celebration, November 11th. The affair will be conducted under the auspices of, and patronized by the Great War Veterans' Association, and the receipts will be donated to home front financial obligations caused in connection with the construction of the soldiers' memorial hall."

"The 49th Battalion conducted a dance on Armistice Day (Nov. 11) this dance of last year was in the main square of the city of Mohs—that all-historic place where the world war began in 1914, and where it ended victoriously for the Allied cause on November 11th of 1918."

"We had a dance last year; let's have one this year, but let us on this first anniversary of the day we shall never forget arrange a function at which all of us, every veteran, all our home front friends, will be assembled. Such was the expression that, optimized the thoughts of all Forty-Niners who talked over the proposals in connection with this 1919 affair."

"District people are especially invited to attend. The executive of the G.W.V.A. and of the Battalion Association realizes that many of the Edmonton boys are now scattered throughout the territory contiguous to this city and it is for this reason that this paper publishes the invitation today. Every person of the town will be welcome, and by attending the dance in the Edmonton Armories on November 11th, Forty-Niners and members of the G.W.V.A. alike will leave no stone unturned toward the creation of an enjoyable evening for all."

Have You Felt Slippers?

"Have you felt slippers, sir?" she said. The boy clerk blushed and scratched his head. Then, smiling back, he found his tongue, "I felt 'em often when I was young."

Well, we've got felt slippers that any one would be glad to feel, especially at this time of the year. We've got them in Men's, Women's, Misses' and Children's, in many styles and shades. One of our favorites is a warm cozy plaid that makes an instant appeal. We have this plaid line for father at $1.85 a pair, and for mother and daughter we bought them, naturally, in a finer and handsomer grade. For the daughter who wears anything from 11 to 2 we have them at $2.00, and for mother or sister who wears from 2½ up we have them at $2.25. But this is only one of many lines and we would like for you to see them.

Women's Warm Lined Winter Footwear

A large variety of Fleece and Wool Lined Footwear suitable for street wear. Although warmly and cosily lined, they are dainty in appearance and while affording the greatest comfort do not distress you with a clumsy appearance. Sizes run from 2½ to 7, and prices are:

Per pair $7.25, $9.00, $11.00, $12.50

Store News Notes

We have installed a Phone for the Dry Goods Department and Ladies' Ready-to-Wear. The number is 184, and we hope that you will use it frequently. We received ten days ago a car of choice Apples from the interior of British Columbia. We're delighted with them and so have our customers been. The fruit in many parts of that province was injured by the intensely hot weather this summer, and last week there was a frost which is said to have ruined 40 per cent of the crop, but we sincerely hope that this is not the case. At any rate, we have a good supply now to offer our friends, and with all dried and evaporated fruits at their high levels this year we feel that apples are about the cheapest thing on the market. We have three qualities, namely, 1s, 2s and 3s. They sell for $3.50, $3.25 and $3.00 each. Let's have your winter specification.

We want to say a word about our Men's and Boy's Mackinaws: Our stock is larger and better than ever, and just within the last couple of days we received a new lot for Young Men ranging in size from 30 to 36. Our prices are alright, too, commencing as low as $9.75 they run up to $22.50 each, and we think that every one is good value at its price.

Special attention is directed to our Footwear Department where we are showing quite a varied range of warm lined leather and fabric goods. In Slippers especially we must have at least double the variety we have ever shown before. Every department of the store is active, and we would be glad if you would try us if you are not already a patron of this shop.

The Best Clothes

For Men and Boys

Is our slogan and we are living up to it. Whether it is a ready-to-wear suit off our racks or a made-to-measure suit, we can please you. Here, also, we note an ever-widening circle of friends and patrons, some of whom have frankly admitted that they were surprised at the splendid fitting qualities of our Fashion Craft made-to-measure suits and overcoats. We predict a tremendous increase in this department as we become known to careful dressers, and watch our prediction come true.

Fit-to-Wear-Anywhere

Just when we were beginning to get real cross about non-delivery of our Men's Negligee Shirts, along comes a whole lot of them, and all the hard things we were thinking are forgotten. The new shirts come in real Christian patterns and are fit to wear anywhere. Men: come and see them: you don't have to buy if you don't like them. In fact, it might be better if we were turned down sometimes, for it would help to keep down pride.

MISS ALINE HOFFMAN, First Soprano and Leader.

Vocally Large—Physically Tiny.

In quality, volume and range Miss Hoffman's voice is unusual. Her success in operatic roles, especially as the "Doll" in Offenbach's Tales of Hoffman, is evidenced by her many efforts to devote her efforts to the theatrical stage. Miss Hoffman's child impersonations are considered wonderful.

MISS ELOISE ROACH, Second Soprano.

A wee little girl with a big voice.

A voice sympathetic in quality, brilliant and clear. Her heart and soul bubbling with sunshine and merriment brings to the Lyceum hall a delight to every audience.

MISS MARJORIE SPRESTER, First Alto and Pianist.

"Pretty to look upon, delightful to listen to."

A voice full of sweetness, under perfect control, a charming personality, thorough musicianship, and a gifted pianist, adds to this company an artist of extraordinary attainment.

Miss Sprester will, besides her piano solos, play all accompaniments.

MISS HAZEL JONES, Second Alto.

A golden voice and a charming personality.

A voice deep rich, resonant and as mellow as the tones of a cello in no way exaggerate: Miss Jones' voice. Temperamental, magnetic and interpretively artistic, making the little songs sound big, and the big songs sound simple enough to be understood by the musically untrained as well as the musician, is one of the chief causes of Miss Jones' popularity.

"We Want Your Business."

WE ARE READY TO MEET YOU HALF WAY

Don't put off the purchase of a New Edison for money matters. Though we are not an instalment house, we are ready to meet you half way. We are glad to arrange payments to suit your convenience.

The NEW EDISON THE PHONOGRAPH WITH A SOUL

The art of the New Edison is much too important to you, to Mr. Edison, and to ourselves, to allow money matters to interfere with your enjoyment of it.

Come in and tell us what is on your mind about terms.
